Brookstone Builders, Inc. Completes Multi-Facility Project in Concord, Massachusetts

MANCHESTER, NH – (May 31, 2013) Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have completed a multi-facility reconstruction project at the Heritage Pool & Racquet Club in Concord, Massachusetts.

The scope-of-work involved the demolition of an existing bath house and storage facility, followed by the construction of a new bath-house with office, a pool equipment building, a covered pavilion that will be used for various events, and a tennis court-side hut.

Site work included general landscaping and the construction of a new pool-area deck.

Dave Giovagnoli of Brookstone Builders was the Project Manager, and Jack Boardman served as Brookstone Builders' Site Superintendent. The project's architect was Robert DeSavio, who is with Bargmann Hendrie & Archetype, Inc. of Boston, Massachusetts.

Founded in 1968, "Heritage Pool & Racquet Club" offers the Concord-Carlisle communities a private recreational facility situated on four plus acres located on Old Bedford Road in historic Concord, Massachusetts.

Brookstone Builders, Inc is a woman-owned business founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
