

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brookstone Builders, Inc. Completes Southwestern Community Services New Construction Project in Keene

MANCHESTER, NH – (February 28, 2013) Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have completed a new construction project for Southwestern Community Services of Keene, New Hampshire.

The scope-of-work involved the construction of an 8,400 square-foot transitional housing facility located on 6 acres of land off Route 101, adjacent to the Cheshire County jail. "The Second Chance for Success" is a wood-framed structure built on an aggregate pier foundation, and consists of six fully-outfitted apartments along with office space and meeting rooms. Dave Giovagnoli of Brookstone Builders was the Project Manager, and George Hickey Architects of Sanbornton served as the project's Architects.

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects. For additional information please contact Ms. Paula Scales at (603) 641-9455 or visit Brookstone Builders' website at www.brookbuild.com. Southwestern Community Services is a Keene-based community services organization that has provided senior and affordable housing in the area. The project was partially financed by the New Hampshire Housing Authority.