Brookstone Builders, Inc. Completes State of NH Renovation Project

MANCHESTER, NH – (January 25, 2022) Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have completed a renovation project for the State of New Hampshire Department of Corrections.

The project involved the renovation of multiple bathrooms at the State Prison in Concord, New Hampshire. The scope of work included select demolition and the installation of new epoxy flooring and stainless-steel shower enclosures.

Mark Brockelman was Brookstone Builders' Project Manager, and the project's architect was SMRT Architects & Engineers of Portland, Maine.

"Renovation projects such as this one that require working in and around occupied space have become somewhat of a specialty, and we have always enjoyed working with the State of New Hampshire," said Brookstone Builder's President Paula Scales.

"Our business relationship has spanned many years and we appreciate their straightforward communication protocols and consistent work processes."

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design-build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
