Brookstone Builders, Inc. Receives Hollis Police Department Project Award

MANCHESTER, NH – (September 2, 2026) Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have been awarded an interior renovation project by The Hollis Police Department.

The scope of work will involve septic line repairs, updating the kitchen area with new cabinets, counters, flooring, and paint, along with flooring and finishing work in other parts of the building, including the locker room and conference room.

“We’re excited to finally get this project started,” said Hollis Police Chief, Brendan LaFlamme. “It’s long overdue!”

Stephen Nichols will be Brookstone Builders’ Project Manager and Denron Hall Plumbing & HVAC of Manchester will be the plumbing contractor.

“We look forward to working with the Hollis PD and appreciate receiving this project award,” said Karen Scales, Brookstone Builder’s President. “Our crews are especially well suited for this type of renovation and for working in and around occupied space, which requires flexible scheduling as well as heightened safety protocols, dust control, and noise abatement.”

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design/build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
