Brookstone Builders, Inc.
Receives NH State Prison Project Award

MANCHESTER, NH – (November 12, 2026) Brookstone Builders, Inc., construction managers and general contractors headquartered in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that they have been awarded a renovation project by the State of NH Department of Corrections.

The project will involve replacing HVAC units at the state prison for men in Concord. The scope of work for phase one of the project includes the replacement of an air handling unit and outside air condenser as well as all associated electrical, piping, duct, and controls work.

Palmer & Sicard, Inc. of Exeter, NH will be performing the mechanical work and Yates Electric Service from Durham will provide the electrical work.

Stephen Nichols will be Brookstone Builders' Project Manager

"We appreciate receiving this award as Brookstone Builders has completed many projects for the State, including others at the prison," said Karen Scales, Brookstone Builders President. "While extra attention is needed for any job occurring in an occupied space environment, this project also has additional security measures to follow."

A woman-owned enterprise, Brookstone Builders, Inc. was founded in 1984. The company provides commercial, industrial, and design/build solutions throughout northern New England, and has also been involved in a wide range of specialty and renovation projects.
